Silverwood Championships Series Rules October 10-11 2009

- 1) Championship will be determined by the average of the-three top scores-earned at the highest test of the level by the same horse/rider combination. The average will be calculated on this combination.
- 2) Two of the three scores must be earned from two different judges at any two dressage competitions at Silverwood during the current year. These scores must be from the highest test of the level, not including Introductory Level which may be either test A or B.
- 3) The third score is to be earned in the Championship ride during the Dressage at Silverwood October 10-11 show.
- 4) Entrant must submit the prerequisite copies of their two highest score sheets with their show entry. These will be the scores used in the Championship calculations.
- 5) Championship rides will be the highest test of the level. Introductory Championship will be test B.
- 6) Tests may be read (to 4th level) and whips are allowed.
- 7) Introductory Level Championship will be two divisions -Horse or Rider. introductory level riders cannot cross enter these divisions. All other tests will be based on designated divisions and nders will not cross enter divisions.
- 8) Awards: Champion trophy and championship ribbons to 6th place.
- 9) USEF and USDF rules and membership requirements are enforced.
- 10) Classes may be used for 2010 Qualifying (add $10 to Champ. Class fee)
